***Notes for Song Leader***

Hi All,

On July 26 we were planning to be back in the Barneys building, but due to tightening restrictions we are doing Cosy Church again on July 26 (stay tuned for future developments about what's happening Sundays - it all depends on the restrictions).

We will start our 2 Samuel series on July 26, with Mike preaching from chapter 1.

David is the Christ figure Saul never was, focused on God's honour not his own, as shown by his reaction to Saul's death - this is the death of God's Anointed One, and so he laments. This over rides an understandable reaction of self interest, because Saul's death means the way is open for David to take the throne.

David responds with the attitude of a servant, knowing the role God has assigned him in that moment, trusting in God's timing and God's will.

David's actions are a great example, though we know how flawed he would later prove to be.

But there is another servant who was God's Anointed, and he trusted God not with only trusting in God's timing, but with his life. He sacrificed himself to make a way for us to be forgiven. And now we can trust the one who has proved his love for us, trusting in His timing, forgiveness and provision.

Application: remembering Jesus' actions/the Gospel, and helping people have the experience of resting their hearts in these truths - so they take time to orient their heads and hearts on His trustworthiness/promises/care.

also, David's Christlikeness as a paradigm of Jesus, and then also of us, in the way David had to wander in the wilderness and suffer before being king.

WELCOME
10:00 AM	3	Welcome Good morning friends.  My name is Rhys, I'm one of the pastors here at Barneys Broadway, coming to you wherever you are from Cosy church HQ.  It is good to be with you today.  And also, a bit sad.  Today was our planned back to physical gatherings date and because of government restrictions changing we are still making adjustments in light of the new public health order.  Everyone I've seen this week has sad something like, oh man, I was so looking forward to being back together, so, it's good we are being safe and are don't want to rush, but I'm a bit sad and disappointed. I reckon I've had that convo no less than 25 time this last week.  I feel the same.  I'm going to pray for us now before we start this morning in light of this.  God is good, and He is with us as we gather even in this format.  But, it's hard and sad and we'd rather be together.  So let's name those feelings and bring them to him together now.  PRAY. Ok, before we get on with our service, a few technical things.  To see song words and liturgy you will need to choose side by side mode in "view options" (at the top of the screen on your computer of laptop) and slide the separator to the left or right to adjust the size. If you are viewing on a tablet or mobile device you will need to click on the song words or liturgy as appropriate. If you have any issues throughout the service head to slack and leave a message in the #cosychurch_technical_difficulties channel We have asked you to keep your audio and video muted, this is so we don't get distracted during the service, however if you would like to unmute your video, video only, during the singing this can be helpful to remind us that we are singing together as a church family. And lastly, just have a look at your zoom name, if it doesnt have your hub name and number in brackets please pop that in now. Even if you think you have logged in correctly, please add your hub name to your name, makes things infinitely easier for our hub manager. Just click participants, your name will be at the top, hover over it and click rename and you'll be able to add your hub. Thanks fam. Ok, we are going to sing together now.  Please feel free to turn your video on if you'd like.  It's a real joy to get to see each other and we praise God in song in all our different places.  I'm going to hand over to the band who will lead us. Thanks friends.
SONG

10:03 AM	4	Beneath the Waters (I Will Rise) [Ab] Notes for Song Leader Thanks [service leader]. Hi Barneys, my name is _____. Today, we will be hearing from Mike from 2 Samuel 1, a passage that sees David act in ways that are shaped by his relationship with God. Let's begin our service today by singing together, even though we are apart, of the relationship we have with our Heavenly Father because Jesus trusted God even to death, and his actions now justify us. In Jesus, we are a new creation. Let's sing to remind ourselves of our new identity as forgiven adopted children of the King, and that we can trust him as he gave up his Son make us his children.
